THINK

This is the school . . . John R. Rogers high school . . . Spokane, Washington . . . I work here . . . I'm a mascot . . .

Good luck and best wishes to a swell girl.
Bonnie Wilson

As each school should have a mascot thus Rogers accepted me, Li'l Buc, to uphold school spirit and traditions forever. That you may become better acquainted with your school and its ideals, I am working on yearbook detail.

From day to day at my post in the trophy case I see many of you pass by and as I watch you hurry on your way, I often wonder to which room you will be reporting. It makes me sad to think that I can't go with you so I, as do you, wait for special occasions.

One of my most thrilling moments is when I help represent Rogers by attending the basketball games with you, the students. The triumph you, either as a team or as the spectators, bring to Rogers is something I never forget. Another of my "jobs" is to inspire pep at the pep convocations.

My attire, of which I am very proud, consists of the symbolic pirate suit of the school colors, purple and gold.

I have mentioned only a few of my duties and I hope that as you scan the pages of this year's Treasure Chest that my assistance will help you to better understand the activities of your school. John R. Rogers high school will always be my home and I hope that you will love and respect it as I do.

To the many graduating seniors of 1955 who no longer will walk the halls of John R. Rogers as students,
we, the Treasure Chest Staff, dedicate
this yearbook with the thought that they may, in years to come, relive the many happy moments pictured.

ONE OF THE MORE PLEASANT DUTIES OF OUR PRINCIPAL IS WRITING HIS TREASURE CHEST MESSAGE.

The Principal's Message . . .

To the members of the John R. Rogers family, teachers and students, the Treasure Chest is a yearly treat. As you eagerly scan the pages, you relive the events and scenes recorded there.

True enough, that thrill comes strongest to those who are the most active school citizens. Intelligent participation in student government, Girls' League, Boys' Federation, journalism, athletics, dramatics, debate, school clubs, or any other form of student activity is wonderful training for adult citizenship.

And so in your 1955 Treasure Chest you see the record of that participation, and you thrill to it as you will 10 or 20 years hence. And you will say to yourself and to others—"That is what makes Rogers such a wonderful place in which to gain a high school education."

J. L. Purdy

Now that you know about me, I'll tell you about some people that both of us know. From my post in the trophy case near the office, I have become quite familiar with the comings and goings of the administration.

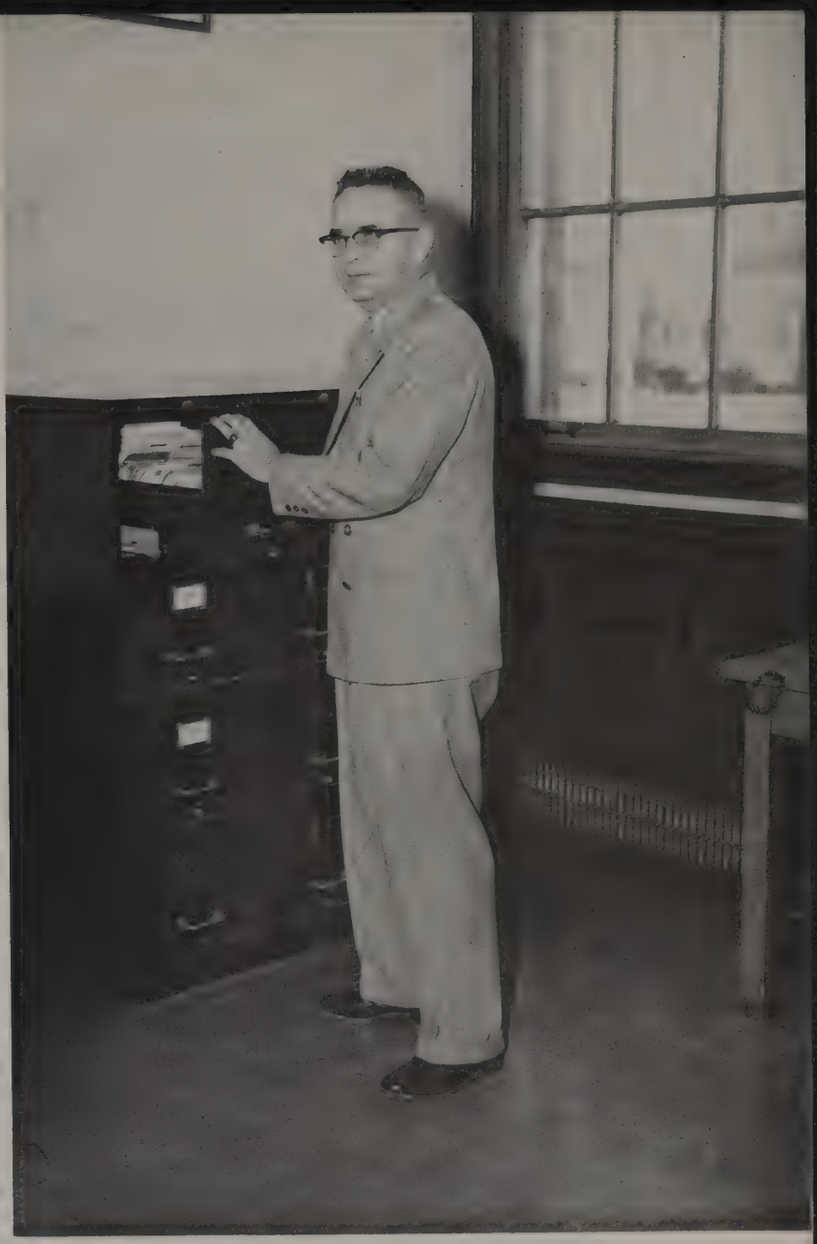
The most well-known personality of Rogers is one of my best friends. Besides carrying the responsibility of more than 1500 students and 57 teachers, Principal J. L. Purdy attends meetings with other principals and businessmen, signs letters and approves school projects.

I see Paul C. MacGown, vice-principal, several times a day. I enjoy knowing Mr. MacGown, and he must be a very popular man because he has visitors all day. Some go in for a few minutes and come out with papers and records and a smile while others leave his office with a long face and a small pocket-sized card. Red must be his favorite color because that is the only one I ever see. After 16 years of service, he has become an ardent supporter of school activities. There is seldom a game, dance or any school activity that he misses.

Mrs. LaVelle Black, girls' adviser, makes innumerable trips between the Girls' League office and the main office. I especially enjoy her friendship because of her warm smile and personality. I can plainly see why so many girls take problems to her. With the help of Mrs. Helen Leland, she advises the various committee chairmen as they plan projects each semester.

Since the Boys' Federation office is at the other side of the building, I don't see E. B. Chrisman, boys' adviser, as often as I would like, but I know him when I see him. He always takes time to explain why the boys mustn't do some of the things that they'd like to do. He also advises the Boys' Federation committees and officers.

These four — Mr. Purdy, Mr. MacGown, Mrs. Black and Mr. Chrisman — make a great team, and I'm proud to be the mascot of their school.



CHECKING STUDENT RECORDS IS VICE-PRINCIPAL PAUL C. MAC GOWN.

COUNSELING STUDENTS IS ONE OF THE DUTIES OF MRS. LA VELLE BLACK, GIRLS' ADVISER, AND E. B. CHRISMAN, BOYS' ADVISER.

Fifty-seven Guide Students' Minds and Aims

After overhearing remarks of the students, I believe that I'm quite qualified to comment on the John Rogers faculty.

As to number there are 57 who, in addition to Mr. Purdy, Mr. MacGown, Mrs. Black and Mr. Chrisman, sign in each morning. Among these are five new members of the staff: Victor Barry, mathematics department; Howard R. Blackman, industrial arts; John G. Jelinek, chemistry; and Mrs. Evelyn Magnuson, commercial; and Miss Georgene Summerson, English and journalism. Mrs. Magnuson replaces Mrs. Ethel Van Austene who was unable to continue her teaching because of illness.

As in all schools, John R. Rogers emphasizes the scholastic achievement, especially the "3 R's." Two of them are taught by members of the English department headed by Miss Hazel Stevens. Other teachers are: Miss Elizabeth Herbert, Mrs. Mary Canup, Mrs. Theadora Frisbie, Mrs. Clarissa Oscarson, Mrs. Hazel Crosby, Arthur D. Grafious, Mrs. Louise Forsyth, Mrs. Hazel Van Doren and Miss Naudia Brockman. Too, all the dramatists can attribute their success to Dale F. Brannon and Mrs. Forsyth.

The other "R" for arithmetic is drilled by Walter E. Doolittle, Miss Faye Weymouth, Alfred K. Ostness and Harold H. Thompson.

The fundamentals of homemaking from sewing on a button to baking a cake are taught by Miss Ella Moyer, Miss Charste Mikkelson, Miss Ethel Larson, Mrs. Leoti Treadwell and Miss Edna Herrington.

In the shops, boys can be found making a table or fixing an automobile with Wayne H. Chapman, Bernie C. Bunn, Herbert J. Russell or Edward G. Kienholz supervising.

Educating students in ways of the social sciences is the task of James J. Elsensohn, Joseph M. Stover, Miss Louise Smith, Herman Sleizer, Edmund Becher, L. LaVerne Mabbott and James Forsyth.

Three foreign languages, French, Latin and Spanish, are taught by two of the shorter members of the faculty, Mrs. Betty Pence and Miss Marion LeFevre.

The harmonious voices of the vocal groups are directed by Forest L. Brigham while William W. Thomas is in charge of the instrumentals.

Turning out more efficient secretaries and businessmen for the future keeps Milton A. Stumpf, Miss Lorraine Schwartz, Mrs. Helen Leland and Miss Rene McMahan busy.

William Aller and Robert F. Eyman develop art talents and keep the school well-postered.

Guided by Lewis L. Sabo, Joseph J. Heslin and Ray Roestel, students keep the atmosphere anything but sweet smelling. They learn about biology, chemistry and physics too.

Ready for any test are the athletes trained by the Carl A. Ellingsen, Fred M. Brown, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Sleizer, Mr. Stover, Mr. Forsyth, Mr. Heslin and Mr. Mabbott, Inc. The girls are equally prepared by Miss Eleanor Mele and Miss Mildred Ryan.

Seeing that the students keep up with their reading material is the task of Mrs. Oliva Harris and Miss Clara Orr, librarians; and Mrs. Edith Broberg and Mrs. Lena Schmidt, study hall teachers.

THE ANNUAL FACULTY PEP CONVOCATION PROVES THAT THERE IS UNLIMITED TALENT AND ENTHUSIASM AT JOHN R.

CHECKING ON ABSENTEES IS MRS. DAPHNE SPRAGUE.

RECORDING STUDENTS' GRADES IS MRS. EDITH WIZEMANN.

Mrs. Daphne Sprague and Mrs. Edith Wizemann carry out the innumerable jobs that keep the main office running smoothly such as answering telephones, filing, typing and checking on attendance and records. Mrs. Sprague has worked here for nine years while Mrs. Wizemann has been here only four years.

Both agreed that the most amusing incident of the year was when a Rogers student paid his registration fee four months late. When he laid his cash on the counter, it rolled all over. For out of his paper sack came 600 pennies that took one period to count.

Keeping the student body and faculty well-nourished each school day is the main responsibility of the cooks who also make the food preparations for annual banquets such as the Dad-and-Daughter and Mother-and-Son.

Keeping the rooms at comfortable temperatures and the condition of the building and grounds in top shape is the job of the school custodians. Chief engineer Jack DeChenne, who opened the building to the first student in 1932, tells me that he is considering retiring as is George Daschbach. Their friendly smiles and always helpful attitudes will be missed by those who know them.

COOKS — Mrs. Katherine Coleman, Mrs. Helen Brandt, Mrs. Elizabeth Dean, Mrs. Lucille LaPoint, Mrs. Ellen Clough.

Highlights of the '55 Class Are Revealed

As the gangplank of the Jolly Ship Rogers lowered in 1951, a crew of nervous freshmen awaited at the docks. Captain Mel Elliott welcomed them aboard for their four-year voyage.

Attending their first Merry-Go-Round game as crew members, they watched the Bucs come out on top and a successful football season followed. Dramatic presentations they witnessed were: "Curious Savage" and "Jack and the Beanstalk" featuring Wally Libby and Ross Byrd.

As spring came on, Doug Berg took over the command. That semester Rogers won her first undisputed track crown since 1946. Donna Smulan, the spring sports queen, rode in the Lilac Parade, and Rogers marched as the honor band.

That fall the Jolly Ship Rogers docked again for enlistment of a new crew, and Dean Mock took the wheel.

In October the flag was lowered to half-mast as the crew mourned the passing of J. Wayne Black, one of the ship's outstanding and beloved educators.

The football season that fall proved to be grim sailing as the Pirates won only their last game, 35–7 over North Central.

Finally getting their sea legs, the class of '55 became active. Seen in "June Wedding" were Cal Karbowski,

In Memoriam

Janet Ellen Ballard

November 24, 1937
December 27, 1952

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me."

Psalms 23:4

Janet Ballard will be present at the commencement exercises of the graduating class of 1955 only in memory. On December 27, 1952, she walked through the valley of death in His presence. Her diploma will be the highest degree, that of eternal life.

We can't help wondering why the young with so much life unfulfilled are taken. The only answer is that Janet is one of the flowers in the Lord's hand-picked bouquet from the garden of life.

Although her life on earth was short, she will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Class Reunion Committee
February 15, 1995
Spokane, Washington

The meeting was called to order by the class president, Burt Chamberlin. The minutes of the previous reunion were read by Alice Richardson, secretary. Marlene Falsetto and Phil Mast, class treasurer and vice-president respectively, gave their reports on where the old grads are now, in preparation for the coming class reunion.

Lee Bloxom, President of the United States, may be found playing golf with Dale Grosche, who is still attending MIT. Caddying for them is Guerin Fischer.

In New York many more of the class of '55 can be reached. Doug Davis and Bob Curry are the "Toast of the Bronx Zoo" where they beg bananas from their trainers, Diane Deeble and Judy Elmquist. Jerry Allen and Beryl Benson may not be able to be coaxed down from their tree to attend.

In the business district George Heineman, Larry Schultz and John McDowell have a good location for their enterprise, selling the New York Times, which is owned by the fabulous Sharon Jensen and Elouise Madren. The big story being covered now is about Helen Hutchinson's invention of an atomic helicopter which can be converted into a toboggan sled. Her ace test pilot is Jack Fanning.

Derald Long and Kathie Meyers have finally achieved their greatest ambition, "to perform in New York." Kathie cranks the organ while Derald collects the money in his tin cup.

Seen around town are the famed "gold diggers," Bonnie Herrman and Dee Dee Husen. They bought new picks and shovels from hardware kings, Jay Frederic and George Brown.

Jane Seeley and Donna Allison are running a tree hospital. Their most apt pupils are Gail Sligar, Marita Pazer, Jerry Owen and Joy Willey.

Oliver Gibson, who is managed by Chuck Potts, is singing at the Mambo club owned by Carol Castleberry and Alice Finney. Another special feature is free mambo lessons given by Colleen Keegan and Larry Williamson. Ron Dudeck celebrated his thirty-ninth birthday at the club recently with Gary Dunn, Bob Hodge and Bill Lewis.

Near New York Bob Miller and Gary Minetti coach the Vassar football team. Outstanding members this year are Joanne Rankin, Carole Rhodes, Dianne Shoemaker and Elenore Zehm.

Marilyn Krall and Darlene Lindahl are staying in an excluded spot in the Florida Everglades to perfect their serum for eternal life. Their able assistants are Pat Larson, Louie Haffner, Kay Harnois and Glenna Madding.

Wally Libby, Bob Krall and Butch Smulan donated their fortune to build a Shakesperian Library. They acquired the money by collecting unemployment checks.

Pepper Pendleton, the wealthy architect in charge of construction, hired several new brick layers: Dick Johnson, Louie Grimmer and Dick Keating.

The Delbridge and Sutherland railroad, owned by Don and Doug, has just been completed. Pat Frissell, Lois Dolan, Sandra Warford and Marlene Wirthgen laid the last three miles of track. Bruce Crowe will have the honor of driving in the gold spike.

The new burlap factory was recently opened by Donna Deatherage. Close associates and seamstresses are Nancy Burbank, Pat Fanning and Janice Busby.

LaVerne Madding, Norm McLean and Frank Rider have leased their corner on Basin street where they played as the famous Harp Trio. It is being taken over by Noreeta Fauser, Joan Herman and Mary Garnsey, who will set up their table for the sale of "wind-up" toys. The "girls about town," Dorothy Cravens, Joyce Manion and Donna Wilcox are signing a contract with the Joe Palooka Bubble Gum company to demonstrate how synthetic it is. It stretches, winds, pulls and snaps.

Barbara Burbank and Carol Berg are now displaying their lady wrestlers championship belts that they won in a tag match against Darlene Drinkard and Peggy McDowell. Their managers are Bev Herman and Geri Hoogstad. They had been working under the close supervision of their trainers, Melba Bowers and Joanne Tibbett.

The Atomic Hydrogen Center, owned by Marlene Falsetto and Mary Ellen Wright, has recently manufactured several new inventions. A hydrogen rocking chair, perfected by Delsene Brown, Sylvia Cook and Bev Edwards, is being tried out by Arena Kelso and Clarene Jeromechek. Graham Johnson is busy drawing Moon Beams for this company.

Graduating from the Norma Munson School for Bird Watchers are Dan Cloninger, Denny Erickson, Pat McKibben, Carl Knapp and Lewis Herman. Chuck Fredericks and Don Johnson, former graduates, have discovered the plumanditated humming bird. This was found on their excursion in deepest Africa. Their guides were Joan Knight and Neil Logan. Also reported on a safari are Lillian McIntyre, Bev Larson and Elizabeth Hanson who have been wild boar hunting.

Admirals Bernard Berry and Ed Cook are invading Lower Slobovia. The Slobovian Mayor, Dennis Hagen is ready to sign a peace treaty on the condition that the next Rogers reunion will be held there.

The World's Championship Rodeo was held in Brazil last year. Glenn Wenrick and Terry Whitney are managers of the organization. Trick riders were Bonnie Corskie, Laverne Anderson, Marlee Millman and Joanne Schultz. Evelyn Butler, June Lorsung, Bill Jones and Bob Hiibner came out on top as champion giraffe ropers.

Don Ellingsen's first rocket ships to the planets of outer space, 50 years ago, opened a new commercial world for the earthlings. Deanna Davis, Pat Castleman and Janice Mickey own the very exclusive Saturn Resort where such famous people as Barbara McKee, Sharon Smith, Helen Muhs, George Morton and Richie

Young reside, Russ Guenther and Norma Holquist are selling the guests electrosonified ski equipment for cloud skiing.

The all-star football team is going into training under Phil Mast, Solor System athletic coach. Preparing for the season are Ed Cole, Burt Chamberlin and Ron Oliver.

Sharon Freeman, Ray Beyer, Billy Maddox and Grant LaTurner have burrowed a hole in a nearby cloud to experiment with their kiddy chemistry sets. Gary Dunn, Dale Atwood and Jan Krug are making their million in their "Space Flea Circus." Hired as directors are Floyd Denham and Pearl Deno.

Dick Cochran and Jerry McGougan have broken the sound barrier in their brand new Kiddy Car put out by the Tot Rod company, owned by John Dixon. The finish line for the Space Ship Drag Race was Mars. Competing were: Lucille Edgeman, Frank Clemens, Clyde Beck and Herb Bradshaw. The Cloud Angels won every ribbon with Helene Jordan, Gene Hauf, Darrel Havercroft and Carl Burrell driving.

Barbara Eachon located a new star in the Milky Way on her last trip to Jupiter.

Bobbie Burchett, Barbara McDaniel and Barbara Lewis, famed Venus fashion designers, have put Dior out of business with their star studded new styles.

Alice Richardson was voted "The Girl I'd Most Like to be In Outer Space With." Her court is Barbara Myhre, Mary Reasoner and Leilani Howell.

Hollywood has replaced Charley McCarthy and Mortimer Snerd with Cal Karbowski and Jim Joireman. Edgar Bergen is now played by John Hanenberg. Marie Denuty is in charge of wardrobe for this program and Joanne Brinkman taking care of the make-up.

In Disney land, Nellie Fosket and Jim Bogart are in charge of the alligator pond. Joyce Anderson, Donna Bretthauer and Lyle Butters are trying to locate the Vanishing Prairie. Joan Desott is producing "Little Orphan Annie," co-starring Elizabeth Bessler and Dick Bogenrief.

Back in Spokane the Senate Investigating Committee, which includes Jean LaBreche, Marlin Greenwood, Leo Hill and Gail Knoke, is concentrating on the Rogers' locker rooms. Della Lawrence and Wally Louden are running a Jacks game there. Police Captains Pat McDowell and Ross Byrd are cracking down on such goings on.

Bernard Anderson and Marlene Anderson are installing swings, slides and a sand box on the Meyer football field. Donna Allison and Donna Bulley are waiting in line to be first to use them.

Bill Belton is caricaturing his days at old John R. His comic strip is called "The World Down Under."

Ann Bergman and Hal Caufield, present Rogers' Russian Roulette instructors, have ordered a new high-powered machine gun from Barbara Gray. Vic Ganzer, Mel Hollis and Brad Pendleton have returned as post graduates to enroll in this course.

The cafeteria program at Rogers has been abolished by Barbara Johnson and pan cake batter is being sold in

Dixie Cups by Irita Hager, Kae Juno and Jim Taylor. Donna Stall, Neil Mayer and Dennie Thompson are furnishing the students with bunsen burners. The batter is prepared by Rod Swiegle and Bob Reber

Don Prichard, Ron Simkins and Don Stortroen notified the committee that they will not be able to attend the reunion as they have just received their draft notices and will leave within the next week.

Danny Brown is singing the commercial for the Crispie Cracker Company, owned by Gary Crisp, accompanied by Bob Coppins on the rumba gourds.

The Soap Box Derby was of great interest this year because Don Davies, an old alumnus, took the honors with flying colors, with the aid of Dorothy DeMers and Roberta Davis, his pushers.

Jack Gamby and his friend, Vicki May, won the sweepstakes which was a case of Markell soap contributed by Phil Markell, and a jar of Maricle Whip furnished by Dale's Company. Pat Messer was a little disappointed because the car sponsored by her supermarket operated by Arlyce Pearson, Dianne Powers and Neil Rector fell apart on the speedway, but the remains were cleared off by Ed Mindermann, Roger Morrison and Larry Nielsen, track squad, so no damage was done.

Beth Richardson gave a daredevil performance knocking Bert Noble, Darrell Oens and Vincent Olcott for a loop with one mighty lurch of the car. Richard Olney, the score board operator, awarded her ten points.

Also of social importance was the arrival of the David Ostendorf Opera Company at the Tiffany Theater owned by Arlene. The star of the show was Art Santa Rosa singing selections from the "Naughty Barber Opera," whose composers were Don Henderson, Mack Harris and Jack Kennedy, accompanied by Richard Hammond at the Hammond organ. Loren Hoffman directed the Hoffman choir which includes: Sopranos—Loraine Juhl, Lavonne Kennicutt, Don Peterson and James Pettet; bass—Joyce Qualtiere, Dianne Riley and Virginia Roberts. Bob Roloff gave a solo accompanied by Arlene Rousey on the symbols. Prima donna, Janet Wilcox, and Johnny Sarber gave brilliant performances. Doctor Paul Schuyler and Judge Sloan were among the noted dignitaries present.

Sheriff of Northtown county, Cheryl Shoff and her posse consisting of Mary Slawter, Wilma Shook, Don Soehren and Clifford Sorenson created a mild disturbance when they gave a twenty-gun salute to show their approval of the opera. Florence Stevens suffered bullet grazes but this was quickly taken care of by ushers Jerry Tolonen and David Tomlinson and all ended well.

Concluding their report, the committee stated that the reunion will be held at the Warnick-Weaser Park donated for the occasion by Wallace and Marie. On the entertainment committee, Katherine Wellington, Cora Mae Sanger, Marie Williams and Joyce Williams will sing as a barber shop quartet.

Betty Lou Zieske, Ann Wyatt and Marvin Yancer will do ballet dancing; music will be furnished by Dwight Wilson and his Rag Timers consisting of Gail Winnington and Janet Woodhurst on the drums and Richard Wright and Roberta Young playing in the horn sections.

Tapping Con Highlights NHS Events

OFFICERS — Mary Slawter, secretary; Frank Rider, vice-president; Alice Richardson, president.

One of the highest honors a student can receive is to be tapped for membership in the National Honor Society. Rogers is the only school in Spokane that has a chapter of this national high school honorary.

To be eligible, a student must rank scholastically in the upper one-fourth of his class and must be a junior or senior. He is also rated by all faculty members on the basis of leadership, character and service. The final selections are determined by a special faculty committee.

The insignia, shaped in the form of a torch with the four requirements — scholarship, leadership, character and service — initialed on the handle, symbolizes these qualities as a key to success in life.

The traditional torch-lighting ceremony including the formal initiation of new members takes place at the annual banquet to which all alumni of the society are invited. Faculty members who are alumni include James I. Forsyth, John G. Jelinek and Ray E. Roestel. Others who are members of the national society are Paul C. MacGown, Mrs. Helen Leland, LaVerne Mabbott, Mrs. Arden Rowe, Mrs. Lena Schmidt and Miss Louise Smith.

In the absence of Mrs. Ethel Van Austene, Miss Elizabeth Herbert advised this group in planning their two events of the year.

. . . AND "PROMENADE HOME"— FRENCH-LATIN, SPANISH AND SENIOR MATH.

From the many activities of these four clubs, French-Latin, Spanish, Senior Math and Junior Math, language and mathematics seem to play an important role in the life of Rogers students.

Students who have taken one semester of French or Latin are eligible for membership in the French-Latin club, but they must tryout before the club. Activities of this organization, advised by Miss Marion LeFevre, include preparing a Christmas box for a needy family, planning a banquet at which French and ancient Roman customs are used and holding an annual square dance party with the Spanish club and the Senior Math club.

Speaking Day Is High Light

High light of the year for all Spanish students is the annual Spanish speaking day sponsored by the Spanish club, which is advised by Mrs. Betty Pence. Students greet one another in the language and they usually wear some insignia or costume. Another event of this organization is the annual examination each spring to determine the best student of Spanish. To be eligible for membership, students must have completed one semester of Spanish with good grades. They are also selected by tryouts at which they present short talks in Spanish.

Students turn teacher in this next organization when members make-up the algebra test to give to students in Algebra II in the annual competition to determine the best student in mathematics. Open to juniors and seniors who are interested in mathematics, the Senior Math club, advised by Walter E. Doolittle, joins with other clubs to help the needy at Christmas time.

Club Open to Underclassmen

One of the few organizations to recognize freshmen and sophomores is the Junior Math club, advised by Alfred K. Ostness. This group gives the underclassmen a chance to take an active part in student activities and, thus, become more interested in the functions of the school.

This group held a Thanksgiving party this year and also prepared a box for a needy family at Christmas.

The initiation of new members into the Order of Gregg Artists was postponed indefinitely when Mrs. Ethel Van Austene, adviser, became ill. Activities were at a standstill until Mrs. Helen Leland became the new adviser.

To be considered for this organization students must receive all A's or B's in shorthand and must be a commercial major. Eligibility also depends upon citizenship and service. To maintain in good standing each must pass the junior test which is given to all members.

Participation in the annual Inland Empire Science fair is encouraged by the Cosmic club. Members of this group advised by John G. Jelinek also helped sponsor the Rogers Science fair which was held for the first time this year.

Composed of students enrolled in chemistry or physics or who have already taken one year of the sciences, the club meets regularly to plan industrial tours and to discuss the recent developments in the field of science.

Third row: Donna Mae Williams, Diane Adams, Ida Schmidt, Jean Helland, Peggy Butters, Laura Swift, Peggy Flanders, Margaret Durfey.

Any girl interested in home economics or in working toward better home life is eligible for membership in the Future Homemakers of America.

This club, advised by Miss Ella Moyer and Miss Charste Mikkelson, is affiliated with both the state and national organization.

Future Nurses of America is a group of girls who are interested in preparing for a career in nursing. Advised by Miss Rowena Fritchie, the school nurse, this newly organized club can be justly proud of winning the Rogers Record trophy awarded for contributing the most money to the March of Dimes campaign.

Juniors and seniors who are enrolled in a music class are eligible for membership in the Lyre Club.

Semi-monthly meetings including one in the evening at the home of one of the members are held. Presidents of this group this year were Norm McLean and Denny Hagen. William W. Thomas is the adviser.

Added to the club roster this year is the Archery Club which was organized through the efforts of Bud Coe. Any student interested in this sport is eligible for membership. Joseph J. Heslin advises the members of this club who shoot in the Pirates Cove after school in preparation for future competitive meets.

ARCHERY CLUB — First row: Marilyn Jacobson, Marilyn Chrisman, Sandi Dillman, Jan Nechanicky, Bruce Carney, Bill Roullier. Second row: Bruce Luntsford, Sally Beck, Nancy Blodgett, Margaret Durfey, Lanny Carney, Jim Fuller, Bud Coe. To promote and develop student interest in art is one purpose of the Palette and Brush club.

To be eligible for membership a student must have taken Art I and II, have a B grade average, be an art major or minor and also submit three pieces of work.

Advised by William Aller, this group meets to discuss possibilities of more art displays in the halls and of a Junior Art club which would be open to any student interested in art, but who is unable to major or minor in it.

Any student interested in promoting cleaner speech, cleaner character and cleaner living is eligible for membership in the 3 C's, a club whose goal is to promote these principles.

Under the leadership of Norm McLean and Bob Roloff, fall and spring presidents, and Ray E. Roestel, adviser, this group meets every other Friday before school to discuss club activities or to listen to special speakers. One of the annual activities is helping a family at Christmas.

Advancing the standards of excellence in dramatic arts is the purpose of Thespians. This national organization forbids secrecy and membership is given in recognition of meritorious work in the dramatic arts.

To become a member of Troupe 1064, a student must have participated in at least two three-act plays and earned 15 Thespian points. Advised by Dale F. Brannon, the club meets twice monthly at the homes of members to plan projects. Money from these projects is used to send one of the members to a high school summer camp at Washington State college.

This group also helped formally initiate the drama club at Lewis and Clark high school into the national Thespian society. Jim Joireman and George Lee were the presidents.

STAGE MANAGERS — Jim Joireman, George Lee, Tom Allison, John Hann, George Boomer, Bob Szulerecki, Stuart MacPhail, Darrel Ellis.

Leaders Receive Training From Clubs

Now that you are familiar with many of the school clubs, you should realize the important role which they play in the lives of Rogers students.

Most of the school leaders receive their later honors because of the leadership and character training of the clubs. Every club member has an equal opportunity to be an active worker because of the relatively sma'l size of each group. He can make new friends, work on various projects that need his particular skill, learn social customs and make good use of his leisure time by supporting the club's activities.

Through his club membership he can enjoy dances, parties with his own club members, with other clubs or with other chapters at the other Spokane high schools. He also has an opportunity to attend state meetings, conventions or formal banquets. He can compete in sports events or contests. He can also practice good citizenship by supporting the many charitable drives of the clubs.

One such project is helping a needy fami'y at Christmas time. Members bring food, clothing and toys to brighten the less fortunate. In January the clubs competed in the "Teens Against Polio" campaign sponsored by the Record. Money was raised by bake sales, coat hanger drives, collections, rummage sales and roller skating parties.

New interests stimulated students to form three new clubs this year. Approximately ninety students claim to be members of either the Pirate Modulators, the Future Nurses of America or the Archery club. The Quill and Scro'l, a national journalism honorary, was also reorganized.

During the spring semester an interclub council was organized by John Dixon, student body president. The members were the presidents of each club. The major project of the group was the purchasing of galvanized waste baskets to replace the old baskets in the halls. Each club designed its own with the club emblem, colors or a typical scene characterizing the group. This not on'y brightened the halls but aided in cleaning them up.

Clubs Number 20

A complete roster of clubs includes: Archery, Cosmic, Debate and Speakers' Bureau, Future Homemakers of America, Future Nurses of America, French-Latin, Junior Math, Lyre, Order of Gregg Artists, Palette and Brush, Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society, Pirate Modulators, R-c'ub, Senior Math, Spanish, Thespians, 3-C's, Rifle and Ski club

In whatever field the interest of the individual lies, these groups give him the opportunity to come in contact with others with the same interests. These organizations play an important role at Rogers. It is easily seen that their influence is not only for the student today at school, but they help develop him into a better citizen of tomorrow.

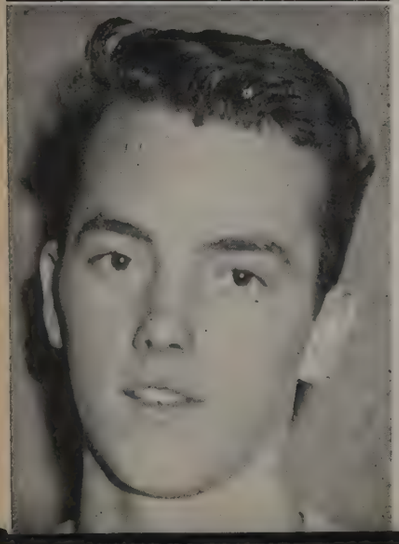
Fall ASB Promotes Home-coming



DON ELLINGSEN, PRESIDENT
JACK FANNING,
VICE-PRESIDENT
ALICE RICHARDSON,
SECRETARY
LOREN HOFFMAN, TREASURER

From the first student council meeting, September 15, to the installation of new student body officers in January, President Don Ellingsen and his team of Jack Fanning, Alice Richardson and Loren Hoffman carried out several projects and introduced new ideas.

The big activity of the fall semester was the first home-coming football game honoring alumni. Approximately seventy-five alumni attended the special reception held in the Pirates Cove after the Bucs' convincing victory over Lewis and Clark.

Committee chairmen who helped carry through the ASB plans were Kathie Meyers and Derald Long, convocations; Carol Berg and Ann Bergman, dance; Frank Rider, student court; Graham Johnson, elections; Diane Deeble, constitution; Mary Slawter, membership; Gary Minetti, cafeteria; and Burt Chamberlin, greeting committee.

Dances Are Success

The first dance of the semester was the Harvest ball which was so successful that for the first time the dances were held in the big gym. Financially, this dance and other mixers were very profitable.

The system of political parties was worked out by the election committee so that candidates had to file either for the purple or the gold party. Each student voter registered, and in the final elections three students were running on each party ticket.

The many plans and ideas of the Ellingsen administration laid a good foundation for the spring associated student body officers.

Spring ASB Works Out Point System

"We promise to bring you something new in the way of student activities," were the basic campaign promises of both the purple and gold parties so the students crossed party lines to elect John Dixon, Derald Long and Kathie Meyers. The treasurer, Loren Hoffman, is selected for the school year. These officers showed the student body that they meant what they promised.

Point System Set Up

Probably the most important contribution was the establishment of a point system so that student leaders including the ASB officers and committee chairmen, Girls' League president, Boys' Federation president and the editors of the Rogers Record and the Treasure Chest would receive points toward an ASB pin.

New committee chairmen named were: Sharon Jensen, greetings; Elouise Madren, membership; Don Ellingsen, elections; Sharlene Taylor and Bud Warashina, convocations; Bob Roloff, charters; Paul Schuyler, constitution; Phil Mast, cafeteria; Jim Strang, sports queen contest; Rod Robertson and Sue Best, freshmen; Graham Johnson, party system; Lee Bloxom, activity ticket; Neva Kelley and George Lee, home-coming; Jeanne Swartz, class officers; Bob Miller and Pat Frissell, charity; Marilyn Coppins, bulletin; Nancy Burbank and Carl Burrell, activity awards; Lois Dolan and Dick Johnson, student body pledges; Doug Davis and Barbara Johnson, one-way stairs; Lillian McIntyre, ASB stationery; Derald Long and Jack Fanning, driving contest; and Derald and Kathie Meyers, courtesy week.

League Is Active

Draperies for the Girls' League office was one of the accomplishments of the fall officers. The sewing was done by Carole Gramlow, assisted by the home economics department. This project added much to the appearance of the office.

Other activities included: The Dad-and-Daughter banquet; the home-coming; the tea with other Leagues of Spokane; addition of two new committees; serving at the faculty luncheon; several general and sectional meetings; and installation of the spring officers.

"Winter Wonderland" was the theme of the Dad-and-Daughter affair which had the largest turnout in many years. Mary Slawter was chairman.

Rogers girls were the hostesses this year at the tea where the old and new officers and their advisers from Lewis and Clark, North Central and Rogers discussed accomplishments and activities of their organizations.

Two new committees added during the fall semester were the serving girls and the trophy case committee. These offered new ways for the girls to earn points for their Girls' League pins.

Last activity of the semester was the traditional candle lighting ceremony when the old officers turn over their sweaters and duties to the newly elected ones.

Tea Is Big Event

Highlighting the spring activities of the Girls' League was the annual Senior Mothers' Tea. This event for the senior girls and their mothers is eagerly awaited by all who attend.

Other activities included: Three general and two sectional meetings; vocationa' conference; ticket selling campaign; Spring Day; Frosh Day; and purchasing of two new sweaters, new aprons for serving girls and badges for the usherettes.

The vocational conference sponsored jointly by the League and the Boys' Federation was held April 22. Speakers from various groups spoke to students on vocations such as journalism, modeling, photography and secretarial.

Spring Day this year was very successful even though the weather varied from snow flurries to sunshine. By having more girls at the mixer, the Girls' League officers were served breakfast by the Boys' Federation officers. The breakfast, a hearty meal, consisted of waffles, bacon and all the usual accompaniments.

League officers and the advisers, Mrs. LaVelle Black and Mrs. Helen Leland, visited the grade schools in the vicinity to tell the eighth graders about Rogers to conclude another successful year of the Girls' League.

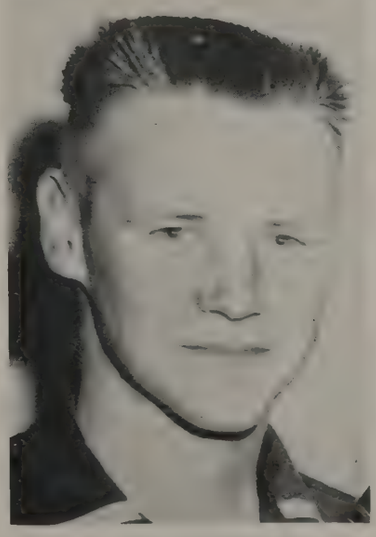
Group Has Two Aims



BOB MILLER, PRESIDENT
CAL KARBOWSKI,
SECRETARY-TREASURER

Boys' Federation committees and activities are aimed at two principal objectives: To improve conditions around the school and to provide programs and activities beneficial to the school and to the students.

Every boy is a member of this organization and, thus, all have an equal chance to work on any of the many committees.

Fall activities got underway slowly until the appointments of committee chairmen were made by President Bob Miller. Among the committees were: Ticket sellers, fire squad, tutoring, freshman greeting, constitution, vocational conference, entertainment, projects, intramural sports, car registration, tanglefoot, car patrol, publicity, cafeteria, complaints, Dad's night, conductors and hall patrol. By working on these committees, boys earn points toward their Federation pins. Gold, silver or bronze pins are awarded to those who earn 1000, 700 or 400 points respectively.

On the top of the list of projects was the ticket booth constructed in the shops for use at games at Meyer field. This addition speeded up ticket sales and eliminated much of the congestion at the gate.

The intramural program supervised by E. G. Kienholz gave boys not out for the teams a chance to compete in three sports — basketball, football and volleyball. Competition was between the homerooms according to grade level.

During the fall semester three gneral meetings featuring guest speakers were held, but probably the biggest event of the semester was the annual Mother-and-Son banquet held in December. Adviser for all Federation activities is E. B. Chrisman.

Dugouts Are Project

The most successful Dads' Night ever attempted was the highlight of the Boys' Federation's spring semester activities.

Jack Fanning presided over Federation activities during the spring semester with the assistance of Burt, Bud and Ken. Boys' adviser is E. B. Chrisman. Federation officers found themselves serving breakfast to the Girls' League officers because more girls than boys were in attendance at the Spring day dance.

The building of dugouts for the baseball field was the biggest project of the semester for the Federation. Over ninety dollars was appropriated for the dugouts which were bui't by students with the help of the coaches.

Plaques were obtained for the homeroom champions in intramural basketball and softball. These plaques will be kept by the winning homeroom until the championship transfers.

Other spring activities of the Federation were the annual selection and sending of one boy to Boys' State and the revision in the point system.

Three outstanding cons were held during the semester in addition to the annual Vocational conference.

Girls' League activities are under the direction of the many committee chairmen and their advisers.

Each semester the girls sign up for the committee to work on the following semester. They are then chosen by the officers by their dependability and interest in the organization. The chairmen then select the girls they wish to have help them.

One of the larger groups is the Big and Little Sister committee. The girls on this committee come to school before it begins in the fall to organize their committee so that when the freshman girls arrive at Rogers, they will be greeted by their Big Sister. There are many other committees that are small in number but large in importance.

Teachers, other than the girls' advisers, help with this work.

Boys' Federation committee chairmen are called upon many times to help with work of the Federation. These chairmen, selected by the officers and adviser, do many things to help better the school.

Each year the success of the Mother-and-Son banquet is due to the work of the committee. Some of the committees are in connection with the League.

Keeping order in the convocations is the duty of the conductors and usherettes.

The conductors are boys chosen by the Boys' Federation while the usherettes are selected by the Girls' League. Both of these groups help at all convocations. Federation and League points are received by the students who help in this way.

Federation Committees Keep Busy

Three active committees of the Boys' Federation are the hall patrol, fire squad and the ticket sellers. Members of these groups earn points for their work.

Probably the busiest workers are those boys who sell tickets. Aided by Mrs. Arden Rowe, bookroom clerk, this group sells tickets to all sports events and Federation activities.

The fire squad is responsible for planning fire drills often enough to meet school regulations. They direct all traffic during these drills. It's also their job to see that each room has a bulletin telling which exit to use during the drill.

Another "order squad" is the hall patrol. These boys are on duty each period during the day. Their job is to check that students don't roam the halls. During the three lunch periods members of the squad are stationed at each stairway to keep the confusion confined to the main halls.

Another committee, which is active but is not pictured, is the car patrol. These boys keep a check on the cars in the parking lot.

All these groups make the Federation office their headquarters.

CAFETERIA PATROL — John Hanenburg, Doug Sutherland, Doug Davis.

Helping to keep the cafeteria running smoothly are duties of the cafeteria patrol and helpers. Both play an important part in the cafeteria system at Rogers.

The patrol consists of boys who, during the three lunch periods, see that all papers and dishes are put in their proper places. They also help to see that lunches are purchased in an orderly fashion.

The cafeteria helpers are girls who assist the cooks in the kitchen. They help serve the food and also do the dishes. They clean the tables after each lunch in order that they may be ready for the next comers. If it were not for these girls, the serving of lunches would not be done so quickly and efficiently.

"Raise your right hand! Do you swear to tell the whole truth, and nothing but the truth" and with these words student court comes to order.

Although the court is not quite as formal as it sounds, this group is an important and essential part of the student body for its duty is to see that violaters are tried and given just sentences.

Presiding as judge for the first semester was Dwight Wi'son and for the second semester, George Venneri. A boy and a girl from each class act as the jury when the court meets each Wednesday morning.

Girls who are interested in becoming cheerleaders try out before Miss Eleanor Mele and Miss Mildred Ryan, Pirette directors. The girls selected by these two then have an opportunity to perform for the student body who select the girls with the most pep, co-ordination and ability to direct spectators at sports events. The boy cheerleaders try out in front of a special faculty committee. There were only two boy cheerleaders, Derald Long and Larry Smith, this year.

Pirettes Promote Pep and School Spirit

Promoting pep and school spirit, performing at football games, and marching in parades are only a few of the many activities of the Pirette unit.

The group, consisting of about seventy-five girls, including majorettes, flag twirlers, marchers, and cheerleaders is under the direction of Miss Mildred Ryan and Miss Eleanor Mele. This organization meets each day during fourth period in the big gym to practice twirling and marching for the special events.

The Pirettes presented half-time stunts at more than half of the football games this year including the annual Shrine game. They also took part in the dedication program, "Schools on Parade," at the Spokane Coliseum and along with the band were the half-time attraction at the Whitworth college homecoming.

March in Lilac Parade

In the spring the Pirettes look forward to marching in Spokane's Lilac parade. At this time they take part in the show at Memorial stadium and this year will put on the stunt for this show which is a distinct honor for any school.

Along with these activities the Pirettes also sell booster hats, serve at the annual football banquet and hold a dance in honor of the football team.

Music Groups Are Active; Band Receives Superior

This year was one of the most active for all musicial groups, both the instrumental and the choral. By the time William W. Thomas, department head, makes his annual report more than 150 performances by soloists, ensembles and the larger groups will have been made.

Honors received this year included: A superior rating awarded the band at the Eastern Washington Music Competition festival; an excellent awarded the orchestra; many superiors and excellents for the soloists and ensembles; selection of six students — Frances Goodrich, viola; Janet Anderson, string bass; Mack Harris, French horn; Frank Rider, trombone; Marilyn Carlson, violin; and Dwight Wilson, timpani--for the all-Northwest band and orchestra.

A comparatively small group, about thirty-seven, the orchestra played all the three concerts and at several student convocations. On all occasions they were well-received as their selections were light fanatsies. One of their more memorable numbers was "A Merry Christmas" by Franckiser at the special Christmas program. Pantomimes of the story of Christmas were enacted in the background by students from the drama department.

Before the annual winter concert in January, the Band had performed on twenty-five occasions. First on the agenda was the Merry-Go-Round game. Other fall performances included: The half-time stunt, "The Little Shoemaker," at the Shrine game; the Great Northern railway open house at the Hillyard shops; an overnight trip to Yakima; and "Schools on Parade" during the opening week of the Spokane Coliseum. All of these required special planning, practice and special musical arrangements.

Probably the most popular band numbers at the winter concert were "Bugler's Holiday," "Little Red Caboose," and "Gunsmoke." All three were specialty numbers. Trumpeteers who effectively triple-tongued the "holiday" were Graham Johnson, Norm McLean, Larry Nielsen, Lloyd Osborne, Bob Roloff, Carmelita Prothero and Jerry Haupt. "Casey Jones" complete with engineer caps and train whistles caught the fancy of the audience. This number was especially arranged for the Great Northern open house.

DRUM MAJOR

To be a member of either the band or the orchestra is indeed a pleasure and a privilege. Any student with music ability may join one of these groups. Whether he wears the purple and gold uniform, official garb of the concert band, or whether he's in the second band depends upon his own proficiency.

To be selected drum major is an honor for band members. Any student interested in the position must try out and then he is selected on the basis of his ability.

Members of these instrumental groups give much of their time to have Rogers well-represented in the field of music. Working with Mr. Thomas to accomplish this goal this year were seven cadets from the Inland Empire colleges and universities.

Rogers Pep Band, better known as the dance band, is one of the more popular musical organizations at school. The members, who are selected at tryouts each fall, practice four to five times a week for two or three weeks. The groups entertained at convocations, Dads' night and Cupid's Caper mixer.

Choir, Glee Clubs Receive Superior Ratings

Choral groups directed by Forest L. Brigham were very active this year. The Choir gave more than eight performances including the annual Winter and Spring concert, the PTA Christmas program and a special recording for the Washington Water Power's program, "Songs From Out of the Night."

A superior rating was earned by the group at the Eastern Washington Music Competition festival held in the spring. Many individual awards were received by soloists and ensemble groups.

Also honored were Shirlene Dykstra, Lavonne Kennicutt, Zola Dahm, Doug Sutherland and Mike Sutton who were selected for the a'l-Northwest mixed chorus. These five students accompanied by Mr. Brigham attended rehearsals for three days in Eugene, Oregon, before the April 16 evening performance. Dr. Charles C. Hirt, director of choral organizations at the University of Southern Ca'ifornia, directed the All-Northwest group.

Membership in the Rogers Choir is the highest honor a choral-minded student can attain. Whenever a vacancy exists, individual tryouts are held. Members of both the Glee clubs may try out. In addition to a good voice, it is necessary for the student to be able to read music.

Probably the most popular selection of this group this year was the arrangement of the many hit songs from the stage production, "South Pacific." Almost all of the choral numbers fo'low the Fred Waring style as Mr. Brigham is a former student of this arranging.

Mr. Brigham is very active in Spokane musicial circles as he is director of the Bel Canto, a women's group, and is contest chairman for the Eastern Washington Music Educators' association. At the present time he is preparing for next year's all-state chorus, which is held every other year. Rogers is unusually fortunate to have Mr. Brigham as choral director.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB, DIRECTED BY FOREST L. BRIGHAM, SINGS "AVE MARIA" AS DRAMA STUDENTS PORTRAY THE NATIVITY SCENE.

Individual tryouts are held for girls interested in belonging to the Girls' Glee club. This year the group sang in the PTA Christmas program, the Winter and the Spring concerts. Directed by Forest L. Brigham and accompanied by Ruby Woodworth, this choral organization received a superior rating at the Eastern Washington Music Competition festival.

Boys' Glee club, also directed by Mr. Brigham, is a class available to those students interested in group singing. The Glee club presented several selections at both the Winter and the Spring concerts as well as at the PTA Christmas program. This group was awarded a superior rating at the Eastern Washington Music Competition festival.

"YE WATCHERS AND YE HOLY ONES" WAS ONE OF THE SELECTIONS SUNG BY THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB AT THE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

THE TRIPLE TRIO IS ALWAYS IN DEMAND FOR PROGRAMS.

Selected from the Choir are the members for the two choral ensembles — the Triple Trio and the Boys' Quartet. These groups make many public appearances at Parent-Teacher meetings, special conventions and contests in addition to school programs. Students try out for membership in either group whenever a vacancy exists.

Members of the Triple Trio are: Andrea Foskett, Catherine Messer, Donna Garrison, Mercides Husen, Noreeta Fauser, Shirlene Dykstra, Lavonne Kennicutt, Joan Herman, Peggy Self and Mary Garnsey.

"LOVE OF TEXAS" CANCELS SPRING ACTIVITIES OF BOYS' QUARTET.

With the moving of Danny Brown to Texas, the Boys' Quartet became a three-quarter ensemble composed of Doug Sutherland, David Williams and Rod Brown. Because of this, the group was rather inactive during the spring semester.

BEFORE HER HEAD GETS IN THE CLOUDS KATHIE IS PRESENTED WITH HER CAP AND GOWN FROM HER SCHOOL TEACHER, AUDREY FISH.

CONGRATULATIONS GO TO FIRST WOMAN JUSTICE.

Dream Scenes Add Humor

"Head in the Clouds," the annual all-school play, was presented under the direction of Dale F. Brannon, drama instructor.

The play, written by Marrijane and Joseph Hayes, was the story of a teen-age girl who daydreamed. All of the brief and hilarious dream scenes were integrated into a strong story of the present that carried the family through a typical and continuously amusing experience which turned out for the best.

The 11 characters in the presentation included students from all classes who were interested in taking part.

Trips, Interviews, Long Hours Make Up the Record

Field trips and interviewing are the parts of journalism which are favored by the staff of the Rogers Record. During the year individual students interviewed Joseph Martin, former Speaker of the House of Representatives; Don Magnuson, congressman at large; Robert C. Notson, managing editor of the Portland Oregonian, and Edgar Bergen, star of television and radio.

Touring the Spokesman-Review plant and the Coliseum were trips enjoyed by all staff members.

The other side of publishing — the work side — was not so glamorous as many early mornings, late nights, holidays and Saturdays were spent in 208 by staff members meeting deadlines.

During Sharon's editorship eight editions were published including the extra, The Buccaneer. Written by the sports staff and edited by Bob Payne, this extra promoted interest in the first basketball game at the Coliseum.

A "first" was the successful sponsorship of a drive for contributions to the March of Dimes. A total of $109.56 was collected in the drive which saw the Record editorial office cluttered with boxes of coat hangers. An engraved trophy was presented to the Future Nurses club who contributed more money than the other clubs in the contest.

After some awkward situations the spring staff soon learned the routine and successfully published seven issues. As the semester progressed, more and more assignments were given to the "cubs," Journalism I students whose job it is to put out the last newspaper.

In recognition of outstanding work in advertising, Orphajean Shaw was presented a certificate of merit by the Advertising and Sales association. This group plans to award a certificate each year to one student from each of the Spokane city and valley high schools. These students then compete for the grand prize.

(As one reporter phrased it) "Putting out the Record requires students willing to put the newspaper ahead of their personal wants and taking on the 'privileges' of working overtime — all the time. The reward? The reward is the satisfaction of seeing your story in print and the opportunity of opening new doors to the other students."

Advisers are Miss Georgene Summerson, editorial; and Miss Rene McMahan, business.

Publishing the Treasure Chest Is No Easy Task

With the distribution of the 1955 Treasure Chest the staff and adviser feel as though they accomplished something worth while.

Some may think that putting out a yearbook is a minor incident, but that's a myth. If that were the attitude of the staff, there would not be a yearbook. Some of the problems that confronted the staff this year were: Moving the dark room to 309; impossible weather conditions for scheduling pictures; a small staff; loss of negatives; and rescheduling pictures.

From the trophy case I watched these staff members leave school long after everyone else had. I also saw them work on Saturdays. Many hours were spent to make the 1955 Treasure Chest something students would be proud of.

RECORD STAFF TAKES TIME OUT FROM WRITING ANNUAL COPY.

Publishing a yearbook calls for co-operation, hard work and many hours. Responsible for the sections this year were: Barbara Anderson, administration; Kathie Meyers, seniors; Don Peterson, classes; Nancy Burbank, clubs and organizations; Barbara McDaniel, activities; Graham Johnson, sports. Members of the Rogers Record staff who wrote copy were Bob Payne, Bill Belton, Orphajean Shaw and Sharon Jensen.

Eight Journalists Selected for Quill and Scroll

DARK ROOM STAFF — Orphajean Shaw, Len Pielli, John Hann, Richard Schubach.

Eight students, members of either the Treasure Chest or Rogers Record staff, were selected for membership in the Quill and Scroll. To be a member of this national journalism honorary, a student must be in the upper one-third of his class and have done superior work in journalism.

The advertising and photography workers are very important members of the Treasure Chest staff. Without the financial assistance of the many advertisers this yearbook would not be possible.

Almost all the pictures were taken by one photographer, Len Pielli, who spent many hours to make this book a pictorial success. Supervised by John G. Jelinek, the darkroom staff was kept busy printing pictures. Undoubtedly this yearbook would not be complete if it weren't for the many extra hours spent by Orphajean Shaw and Len to ready pictures for the engravers.

Ten Representatives Earn Free Treasure Chest

"Buy your Treasure Chest . . . Get your red hot annuals right here." This was the call ringing throughout the halls of Rogers last November.

A free Treasure Chest was promised to the representatives who had 100 per cent sales in their homerooms. Ten homeroom representatives qualified. It was decided not to have any spring sales of annuals as approximately 1,100 Treasure Chests were sold during the campaign. Vicki May, business manager, was in charge of the sales.

Dances Are Success; Attract Many Students

Dances at Rogers proved very successful this year as they were held in the big gym instead of the Pirates Cove.

Many were sponsored by the ASB's dance committee with the assistance of their adviser, Mrs. Hazel Crosby. One of the most successful dances was the Sadie Hawkins, which attracted a large per cent of the student body this year.

Other fall and spring dances were held. Records were usually used although the Pep Band provided the music at some of the affairs. Faculty members and parents chaperoned.

Along with these special dances regular morning dances were held in the Pirates Cove and many students attended before beginning the school day.

MANY GAY NEW SPRING CLOTHES WERE SEEN AT THE SPRING DAY MIXER EVEN THOUGH THE WEATHER RANGED FROM SNOW FLURRIES TO SUNSHINE.

The visual education operators are thoroughly trained in all aspects of audio-visual materials including care of film, operating and caring for equipment.

Advised by E. T. Becher, the students earn one credit for their work although they spend two periods, one for instruction; the other for actual operation.

During the fall semester this group operated either the motion picture or the slide projector for more than four hundred classroom hours. All classes make use of this teaching aid; however, the science department is by far the greatest user.

What does the student council do? Is there really a need for one?

These questions are answered whenever students walk around the hal's of Rogers. There is plenty of evidence of what the council does. There are signs reminding students of courtesy, cleanliness, coming sports events and school activities.

Whenever problems arise concerning students, it's the student council, advised by Paul C. MacGown, vice-principal, who answers. This group speaks for the students and they plan many activities.

Pirates Take City Championship; Tie for Top in Basin

Rogers' mighty football team opened the season by chalking up an exciting Merry-Go-Round victory by downing North Central in the final quarter with the margin of a safety for a 2-0 win after taking Gonzaga in the second frame by a 7-0 count.

Opening the City League, the Buc machine, coming from behind, ground out a 12-7 win over Gonzaga. Although the Pirates couldn't get up a sustained drive until the fourth frame, they outgained the Pups two to one in yardage.

Next, Rogers traveled to Yakima and handed a hapless band of Buccaneers a 32-6 drubbing. The Yaks pushed their only touchdown across in the final minutes.

Taking advantage of Lewis and Clark gridders, the Bucs, scoring at will, rolled up a 40-18 victory. Rogers' letdowns gave the South Siders two "gift" touchdowns.

Rogers built up a 28-0 lead over North Central before the Indians could find their scoring punch. In the final period they struck pay dirt twice against Buc reserves. Rogers 28, NC 13.

The next tilt almost proved fatal. As Rogers was grinding out a 19-0 triumph over Walla Walla, quarterback Don Ellingsen slammed the Blue Devils' Brent Wooten out of bounds. After the jarring contact, Ellingsen then was rushed to the hospital and treated for a broken collarbone. This loss seemed almost disastrous as the Pirates were putting their title on the line the next week against a fast-moving Gonzaga outfit.

As expected, the Pirates found themselves trailing Gonzaga, 10-0 at half time in the annual Shrine game. Then, a newly inspired crew of Pirates stormed onto the turf and struck pay dirt twice to give Rogers its most well-earned victory of the season. High light of this battle was halfback Jack Fanning's jaunt of 71 yards into the end zone on a short pass play from Ken Eilmes.

Finding themselves behind 20–7 at half time, the Hillyard unit could never overhaul a high-spirited North Central team and went down to their only defeat 21-27.

Rogers closed a successful season by slaughtering an outmanned Lewis and Clark unit 49-13 in Rogers' first homecoming game. Joel Watkins, reserve halfback, lead the scoring parade with three touchdowns.

The final gun brought to a close one of Rogers' most successful football seasons. The Bucs held second place in the state football poll for many weeks. It took men with a fighting spirit to keep them there and to pull through a win in games like that with Gonzaga.

HEAD COACH FRED M. BROWN

COACH HAROLD H. THOMPSON

Head coach Fred M. Brown and line coach Harold H. Thompson put together one of Rogers' finest football squads last season.

Early last spring coaches Brown and Thompson were working out the strategy to keep the city championship at Rogers for the second straight year.

Their efforts were not in vain as this 1954 grid machine not only wrapped up the city title but also tied with Walla Walla for the Columbia Basin crown.

The "B" squad football team was not as successful as the varsity, but coach James I. Forsyth did drive home the fundamentals of clean, hard-hitting football that should enable Coach Brown a wide selection of future varsity players.

Coaches Joseph J. Heslin and Joseph M. Stover put across the tactics of tackle football to a crew of freshmen and came up with a highly successful team that should progress to good "B" and varsity material.

Although inexperienced, the Rogers B's, who ended their 1954 football season with a 3-win 5-loss record, fought each game to the final gun and were never defeated by a large margin.

The B's had some of the hardest running backs in the city but were weak on tackling and blocking.

They were ably coached by James I. Forsyth.

The Freshmen football squad coached by Joseph J. Heslin and Joe Stover were stopped short of the championship this year by the LC Kittens who have held the league championship for the last five years.

Even though they emerged second best, the Bucs with a 4-1-1 win record played a clean hard-hitting style of football that would be a credit to any team.

FROSH SQUAD — First row: Gary Cockley, Dee Scott, Bruce Ellingsen, Bill Borden, Richard Williams, Dale Sciuchetti, Ed Simpson. Cage Fans Receive Many Thrills

Taking over the reins as varsity basketball mentor this year was Harold H. Thompson who guided the Bucs to a second-place finish in city league play.

The first of many thrills for Rogers fans came in the opening game when the Pirates fought to a 54–50 overtime victory over North Central. Later in the season eventual champion Gonzaga had its long win streak snapped by the Bucs. Probably the biggest thrill of all came in the last game of the season when Kenny Eilmes, smallest player in the league, fired through 17 points to run his season total to 138, thus smashing the city scoring record.

All city league games were played in the Coliseum this year before record crowds.

Coach Herman Sleizer's B-Squad basketball fortunes took an abrupt reversal after two straight titles as the Bucs finished last in league play.

The Bs had the potential material of a championship squad, but never could go at top speed for a full game.

Although failing to win the championship, Rogers freshman basketball team produced some outstanding prospects for future varsities winding up in a tie for third in league standings.

Substituting freely in all games, Coach Fred Brown, returning to the courts after several years, gave many boys a chance to play.

COACH JIM FORSYTH

Stepping in as head baseball coach three years ago, James Forsyth replaced Joseph Stover. In two previous years as baseball coach his Pirates have finished second.

Fourteen years ago Coach Forsyth graduated from Rogers. He was a four-sport star, secretary of the Boys' Federation and a member of National Honor Society. Before returning to Rogers as a teacher he pitched for the Spokane Indians.

Pirates Claim Five Returning Lettermen for '55

Five returning lettermen — Ken Eilmes, catcher; Jack Fanning, pitcher and outfielder; Rich Rust, second base; Don Ellingsen, outfielder; and Jerry Lynch, center fielder — formed the nucleus of Coach Forsyth's Bucs.

Living up to early predictions, the varsity nine easily won seven straight preseason contests before losing to the West Valley Eagles, 4–1.

Approximately 15 preseason games with teams from the valley high schools, nearby college JV squads and Lewiston, Idaho, high school were played although rainy weather canceled some games.

City league action opened April 26 with Rogers playing North Central. Crowning of the Sports King and Queen, winners of the ticket contest, highlighted the first home game, April 28.

Behind the pitching of Gary Barnes, the 17-man squad showed early promise of being the team to "beat" in the four-team city league.

Under the coaching of Herman Sleizer boys gain more of the knowledge necessary to be a ballplayer. Regularly scheduled games are played to determine the outcome of a highly competitive league made up of city and valley schools. No letters are given; the only award received for B-Squad play is the feeling of accomplishment.

First step toward becoming a member of the varsity baseball team for freshman students is a year on the Freshman baseball squad. The year of experience gained here is invaluable to both the player and the hope of the future varsity teams. The task of instilling this knowledge falls upon freshman football coach Joseph Heslin.

HERE'S HOW KEN EILMES BROKE THE CITY SCORING RECORD.

One of the more memorable events of the 1954–1955 cage season was the breaking of the season scoring record by Kenny Eilmes, Buc guard, who netted his 138th point in the last minute of play in the last game of the season.

Two other athletes who also received recognition were Don Delbridge and Bobby Miller.

Team Ties for First

Suffering their first defeat in three years, the tennis team wound up the fall season in a three-way tie for first place.

Their loss to Lewis and Clark, six matches to three, resulted in LC, North Central and Rogers sharing top honors in the city league.

The blow was somewhat softened when Bryon Barberow and Bob LaTurner won the doubles championship in the all-city high school tournament. Ed Cook paired with Nancy Burbank got as far as the mixed doubles finals.

Coached by L. LaVerne Mabbott, the fall tennis team beat North Central, four matches to three; West Valley, nine matches to love; and Central Valley, eight matches to five. The latter meet was a scrimmage, not a regular league game. Best prospects for spring were three seniors, Denny Hagen, Lee Bloxom and Bryon Barberow.

Team Eyes Fifth Title

Bidding for their fifth spring city championship was the Rogers varsity tennis team under the supervision of Coach L. LaVerne Mabbott.

The squad claimed Denny Hagen, Lee Bloxom and Ed Cook as the three senior lettermen. Outstanding junior players were Byron Barberow, Bob LaTurner and George Ziegwied. Up to the time of printing, the squad had played one league game with Odessa and won, 10–0. Weather cancelled some of the scheduled preseason games. According to Coach Mabbott, Lewis and Clark and North Central were the chief contenders for the title.

The singles championship at Rogers was won by Lee Bloxom while Denny Hagen was the runner-up.

League rules were changed this year so that five singles and two doubles are played without duplication of players.

COACH ROESTEL GIVES HIS BOYS THE LOW-DOWN CONCERNING NEXT WEEK'S BIG RUN.

Harriers Meet Rugged Competition

Rogers thin cross-country team could not cope with probably the stiffest competition in league history and took last in the 1954 standings.

Coach Ray Roestel's outlook for the future looked brighter, however, as a determined freshman squad won the frosh all-city meet.

PETTET, KENNEDY AND HAVERCROFT PREPARE FOR CROSS-COUNTRY MEET HELD AT COMSTOCK PARK.

Rogers top runner was Jim Pettet, who had under a year of experience but performed very well. Lewis and Clark's Bill Colwell smashed his own record several times in pacing the Tigers to the title.

The cross-country course is 1.8 miles with all meets run on the Comstock park course. Gonzaga does not compete in the league leaving it a three-team operation.

Trio to Carry Burden of Squad

Coach Ray Roestel's track and field team will be hoping to dethrone Lewis and Clark's two-year domination of the city league. The Bucs' "big three" — Jack Fanning, Don Delbridge and Denny Driskill, all potential record smashers — will be carrying the burden for the Pirates all season.

UP AND OVER IN JUMPING PRACTICE IS SENIOR HAL CAULFIELD

The Buc thinclads journeyed to the Moses Lake Relay, sponsored by the Moses Lake American Legion Post, and grabbed third place with 21 points. Fanning's record-breaking pole vault performance of 11 feet 8 inches was one of the ten previous marks to fall at the annual affair.

DON TENSES FOR THE START AS COACH ROESTEL TRIGGERS THE GUN.

Always ready, wil'ing, and able to lend his talents in the coaching field is Coach Ray E. Roeste'.

Coach Roestel, now in his third year as varsity track coach, is very familiar with speed. He was one of the first men to fly a jet across the Atlantic Ocean.

Municipal Fairways Lure "Divot Diggers"

Divot diggers and dub dodgers turned out in full force this spring in hopes of landing a spot on the Rogers golf team.

Before the municipal courses were opened, many of the players made regular trips to one of the indoor driving ranges. This preseason practice was a great aid to both players and team.

As soon as the weather permitted the opening of the courses, the boys moved out onto the fairways. Time for the matches was drawing near and a team had to be picked.

Landing a spot on the first six were: Guerin Fischer playing first man; Bill Warner, second; Don Hatcher, third; Pat McDowell, fourth; Art Pagnotta, fifth; Graham Johnson, sixth. Dick DeShaw and Jerry Baldwin served as alternates.

Rogers played Gonzaga, Lewis and Clark and North Central twice in city league competition.

WAITING FOR MISTER WEATHER TO DECIDE HIS NEXT MOVE IS ROGERS' GOLF TEAM.

Boys earning varsity letters as a player or manager in any sport make up the membership of the R Club.

Primary purpose of the club is to improve athletic conditions and school support of teams. The athletic patrol, whose job it is to check conduct at games and track meets, is an activity of the R Club.

Each year the club presents a "Mr. Hustle" award in each of the four major sports to the athlete who, in the coaches' estimation, worked hardest both in games and in practice. Winner of the award in football was all-city guard Bob Miller, who also was recipient of the Bland Medal as "most inspirational" player. In basketball, senior center Don Delbridge was given the nod.

Adviser this year was varsity baseball coach James I. Forsyth. The post of adviser alternates among the various varsity coaches.

Girls' Sports Can Be Thrilling, Too

Everybody is excited about sports all-year-round—boys' sports that is. Not many are excited when it comes to girls' sports even though their games may prove to be just as thrilling.

Directed by Miss Mildred Ryan and Miss Eleanor Mele, physical education instructors, the after-school sports program offers basketball, softball, tennis, volleyball, badminton, western dancing and horseback riding. Girls learn to develop self-assurance, confidence and poise by taking part in the after-school sports which are held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Letters are awarded in girls' sports in almost the same manner as in boys'. It takes three semesters to earn a letter and usually two or three years are required. A maximum of 400 points per season may be awarded for volleyball, baseball or basketball.

Miss Ryan and Miss Mele, who coach the many teams, will tell you that anyone thinking that a teacher's job lasts form 8 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. is quite mistaken as frequently both of these instructors give up their week-ends and evenings to keep the girls' sports program running smoothly.

Tennis Team Tops League; Nominated for Honors

Coached by Miss Mele, the girls' tennis team won the league championship last fall, thus defeating North Central for the first time in several years. The victory was a significant one in that almost all the wins were scored by the veterans of the squad. In recognition of this accomplishment, the team was nominated for the Inland Empire Team of the Year. Gloria Burns, No. 1 on the squad and a promising freshman, was also nominated for Athlete of the Year.

"Practice makes perfect" may be a very old saying, but it still applies as the girls worked at perfecting their serves, strokes and all-around court play. Many of these players are on the tennis courts as early as 7 a.m. in good weather. They work hard to be eligible for league play, but their big activity is participating in the Spokane City Tournament.

When the weather turns colder, girls who participate in after-school sports turn their interest toward volleyball or basketball. Those out for basketball, practice in the Cove to prepare for league games with the other city and valley schools. By finding out about this sport girls are usually more interested in the varsity games.

As soon in the spring as the weather permits, girls once again turn their interests toward the outdoor sports. Because of the unfavorable weather this spring, the softball program is off to a late start. No matter which sport they choose, the program is keyed to give the girls an opportunity to play for enjoyment as well as for reward.

Norma Rider, Norma Archer, Kay Vaughan, Marilyn Chrisman, Janice Tomlinson, Diane Dietrich, Sandra Willis, Anna Garnsey, Sandy Tascherau.

HAND OVER HAND, GIRLS DECIDE WHO'S UP FIRST AT AFTER-SCHOOL SOFTBALL GAME.

Twenty-one girls who turned out for spring tennis played in the many intramural matches scheduled while waiting for the league matches with the other Spokane high schools to begin on May 2.

All members of the squad, coached by Miss Eleanor Mele, looked forward to the annual Inland Empire Tournament, May 19 and 20. Gloria Burns, again the No. 1 player, also ranked as the Spokane girl to win as she already held the city girl's junior championship title.

PLAYING IN THE SNOW ON MARCH 22 WAS A TYPICAL SCENE.

AN ADDED FEATURE OF SPRING DAY WAS THE MIXER AFTER SCHOOL.

Spring Day Is Celebrated With Varied Activities

The annual Spring Day, sponsored by the Girls' League and Boys' Federation, was held March 22. At this time spring cottons and white shirts are worn.

A mixer featuring a contest between the League and Federation was held after school. The girls won. Snow flurries were present, but Spring Day was a success.

Drama Department Presents "Time Out for Ginger"

"Time Out for Ginger" was presented by the drama classes on April 29 and 30. The play, a successful New York production, was well received by students.

The action revolves around Ginger, portrayed by Audrey Stewart, who becomes a member of her high school B squad football team. Her sisters, played by Gail Knoke and Nancy Shenefelt, boycott the football games and try to outlaw gym for girls. Much confusion results when Ginger scores a touchdown and her sister Jeanne becomes a second "Helen Hayes." This production, directed by Dale Brannon, concluded the dramatic performances of the year.

PASSING IN REVIEW ARE THE MAIN CHARACTERS OF A FAST-MOVING COMEDY ABOUT A TEEN-AGE TOMBOY ENTITLED, "TIME OUT FOR GINGER."

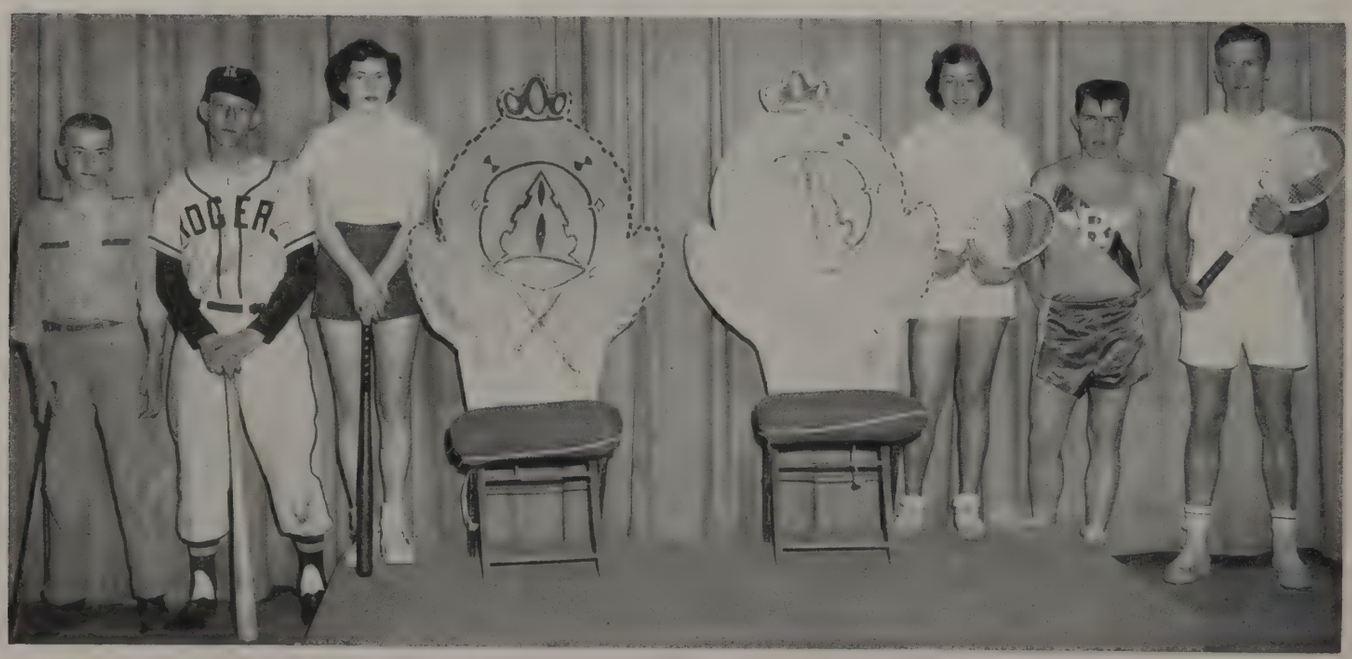
Royalty Honored at First League Baseball Event

It was on a Thursday afternoon at the home baseball game. I will never forget the radiant smiles of Queen Nancy Burbank and King Jerry Lynch when they were crowned as the 1955 royalty of spring sports by ASB President John Dixon at Meyer Field.

The princesses and princes were Donna Deatherage and Larry Nielsen; Mary Garnsey and Norm McLean. Members of the royal court were: Janice Mickey and Derald Long; Bonnie Herrman and Denny Driskill; Joanne Rankin and Lee Bloxom.

Anyone entering the annual race must sell $25 worth of tickets to qualify for the finals. The team who sells the most season tickets reigns over all spring sports events. The contest was organized by Jim Strang with the help of Dee Dee Husen.



Eagerly awaiting the arrival of the sports king and queen are the representatives from the spring sports: Bill Warner, golf; Rich Rust, baseball; Marilyn Chrisman softball; Gloria Burns, tennis; Dennis Drinkard, track; Denny Hagen, tennis.

Norma Munson and Barbara Myhre and in the "Wizard of Oz" were Norma Holquist, George Brown, Jim Joireman and Alice Richardson.

Team Ties for Title

Jim Christenson steered the ship the second semester. During his captaincy the mighty Pirate team tied with West Valley for the city basketball title, but the Eagles downed the Bucs, 66–50 in the playoff.

Pat Ryan reigned as sports queen while the baseball team placed first and the track team defeated the three other Spokane schools in the all-city classic.

Once more the ship docked, and the fall voyage began under the direction of Captain Neil Nelson. Memories of the year include: "The Goose Hangs High" with Jim Joireman, Cal Karbowski, Derald Long, Kathie Meyers and Alice Richardson in the cast; "Rumplestiltskin, with Ray Beyer, Norma Holquist, Norma Munson, Jim and Derald; and the Mardi Gras, the first all-school variety show.

Then came the creation of me, Li'l Buc. Louise Anderson was actually responsible although I was officially presented by Rod Peterson and I like to take some of the credit for the varsity football team snatching first place in the city league action. Three members of that squad — John Dixon, Jack Fanning and Bob Miller — were named all-city that fall.

Ship Is Rocked

The ship was really rocked the following semester when Phyllis Crumbaker broke tradition and became the first girl ASB president in seven years.

Another memory of that year, and this is a sad one, is the dying of the basketball team with three wins and five losses.

After the spring docking that year, the '55 crew members took full command. Captain Don Ellingsen was assisted by Jack Fanning and Alice Richardson while Bev Larson and Bob Miller served as first mates.

Recollections of that fall were the dramatic productions: "Head in the Clouds" in which Dan Cloninger, Cal Karbowski and Kathie Meyers took part and "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" in which Dan and Jim Joireman acted . . . the dances — Harvest Ball, Sadie Hawkins, Football Finale, Kris Kringle's Kapers and the R Club Mixer.

Again the fighting Buccaneers won the city football championship and they also tied for the Columbia Basin league title. Burt Chamberlin, Jack Fanning, Phil Mast, Bob Miller and Ron Oliver were selected all-city.

Parties Established

For the spring semester elections the election committee set up a new political system involving purple-and-gold parties. In this initial experiment the students crossed party lines to elect a "gold" captain, John Dixon, and "purple" assistants, Derald Long and Kathie Meyers. Mary Slawter and Jack Fanning took their posts as first mates.

After a somewhat smooth journey the crew of '55 anxiously awaits disembarkation. Their four-year cruise has taught them leadership, co-operation and sportsmanship, and now they are ready to chart their own voyages in life.

I shall miss them, for as a class they added to the spirit of John R. Rogers. Their places in the halls and rooms will be taken by others, but much of their imprint will remain. Someday they will return again, and I'll be waiting at my usual post.
